GLASS

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,

No. 2 N. Liberty Street,

BALTIMORE.

IN presenting these designs of Embossed and Cut Glass, we would remark that the cost of this class of work depends entirely upon the amount and character of work done, which it is impossible to give an idea of in a Lithograph.

The prices given are for the finest work in the several lines, done by the very best workmen and in the highest style of the art. The same patterns can be produced at lower figures by reducing or modifying the amount of work, so that if parties prefer any particular pattern at lower prices we can make them to suit.

Embossed Glass on Polished Plate.

Embossing is the finest and most delicate ornamentation that can be executed on glass, representing animals, flowers, foliage, portraits, etc., etc., with an exactness seen only in photographs or steel engravings.

This class of ornamentation is the most fashionable style in use, and is mostly used for front vestibules and sliding doors.
